

HAND CHIMES AT STONE VALLEY MIDDLE SCHOOL

Please join us for a great music program!

Hand chimes, like hand bells, are single, hand-held notes that, when played together in a group, make beautiful music.

WHEN: One hour Wednesdays, Immediately after school, starting September 2009

WHERE: Stone valley middle school music room

Who: Open to 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students. Previous music experience is helpful, but not necessary.

What: a music group requiring regular attendance & teamwork. Will perform 3-4 concerts throughout the school year.

Cost: $150.00 for weekly rehearsals the entire school year. Shirts will be ordered in September and will cost approximately $20 extra.

Limited to 20 students on a first come, first served basis, so sign up early at SVMS registration!

Classes are taught by meg Thayer, Ph.D., musician and stone valley parent. Please contact meg with any questions: megthayer@sbcglobal.net (925) 855-1792.
